 & The Chelsea Townhouse
- 4 minute walk

CADOGAN GARDENS

Hidden from the city's hustle and bustle in a tranquil and residential corner sits our uniquely boutique hotel. With The Chelsea Townhouse opening on to Cadogan Gardens, we sometimes forget that our quiet neighbourhood setting is just a few moments from some of London's most visited attractions.

- 243 ft from 11 Cadogan Gardens
- 0 ft from The Chelsea Townhouse
- 1 minute walk

Home to one of London's best artisan food markets and the iconic Saatchi Gallery, Duke of York Square is an elegant, historic destination and the perfect place to enjoy retail or beauty therapy, alfresco dining or a spot of contemporary culture.

- 0.2 miles from 11 Cadogan Gardens
 & The Chelsea Townhouse
- 4 minute walk

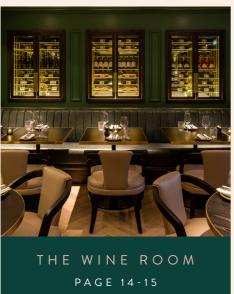

PAVILION ROAD

Step out of our restaurant, Hans' Bar & Grill, to discover Pavilion Road, London's longest mews. Lined with Victorian era stable blocks, the road is now a picturesque haven for independent and artisan food, beauty and fashion stores. It is also completely pedestrianized and has become home to several restaurants and bars, offering alfresco dining.
